

Let's make a Class Guide of Places to Visit!

私の好きな場所 ^す_{ばしょ} My Favorite Place

Do you have a favorite place? Your favorite restaurant, shop, park, lake, hiking trail, library, museum... any hidden gems that you know in Boston area or places outside of Boston (or even outside of the U.S.) that you want to introduce to your classmates? Using the passage on p.322 as a model, write a short essay about your favorite place and post it on Blackboard!

Write (type) about your favorite place!

In your post, please include

1. 場所 ^{ばしょ} の 名前 ^{なまえ} (Include it in your post title. Ex. “私の好きな〇〇: (name of the place)”
 2. Description of the place and things/people etc.
(How it is like, location/direction, what is there, what you do/did, etc.)
 3. しやしん
- * Click on “Create Thread” to start your post. To post a picture, rather than attaching files, save a relevant picture of your favorite place on your computer, and click on ⊕ from the toolbar to insert and resize the image. To add a link, click on 🔗.

IMPORTANT! You will read your classmates' posts on the day you do not have Oral Test 2/Class and vote for the best posts. This means that your post should be understood and communicated clearly to your classmates. Therefore,

- Please write so that your classmates can understand.
- If there are a few new words that class has not learned, provide English meaning for those words.
- Do not use kanji or grammar patterns that the class has not learned yet.
- All work submitted in this course must be your own. This assignment is for you to build your writing and reading skills, important learning goals of this course. You may use a dictionary to find words; however, you must create your own sentences. Use of outside tools/persons, including AI writing tools and sentence-level translation, are not permitted.

No requirement for character count but 160-200 characters (letters), excluding your word list, is appropriate.

* Try using...

1. variety of new vocabulary
2. frequency words or degree expressions
3. いる／ある
4. location words such as front, back, right, between, north/east/south/west, etc.
5. various particles such as と (and), も (also), double particle (にも、でも、とも) etc.
6. the て form
7. conjunction (それから、でも、だから) and/or から (reason)
8. affirmative/negative forms
9. use learned kanji only, or put hiragana readings if you are using ones that are not introduced in class.

Your work will be checked for (1) content, (2) understandability & communication to the audience, and (3) accuracy.
